

Representative engagements completed by Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff's attorneys for Non-Profit companies include:

- As outside general counsel, provided non-profit dedicated to helping myeloma patients on a wide variety of issues, including corporate governance, employee contracts, director and officer needs, real estate leases, and membership affiliate relationship agreements.
- Represented a pro bono legal service organization in collective bargaining negotiations with its employment union.
- Advised a non-profit competitive soccer club on corporate governance issues and trademarks.
- Represented a museum in connection with a disability discrimination claim filed with the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing, revised employee handbook and gave day-to-day employment advice.
- Helped a non-profit dedicated to anti-doping research with its corporate formation and organization and in negotiations with UCLA.
- Advised a religious non-profit on the termination of its pre-school director and related documentation.
- Successfully defended claims for religious discrimination, defamation, and wrongful termination in violation of public policy by the executive director of a non-profit.
- Drafted and negotiated an employee agreement with the executive director of a bar association.
- Successfully defended an art museum in employment litigation claims.

"Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff has been a key contributor to the success of Rampage Futbol Club. Their knowledge of non-profit entities and the soccer world, foresight, and time and attention to detail ensure that our organization is operated properly from a corporate governance perspective and that our trademarks are protected."

Stuart Cohen, President, Rampage Futbol Club

"Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff has represented The Los Angeles County Museum of Natural History Foundation on a number of confidential and important matters. I have always found their assistance to be timely and effective. Working with them has been a pleasure."

James R. Gilson, Vice President & General Counsel,
Los Angeles County Museum of Natural History Foundation

- Business Disputes and Litigation
- Corporate and Securities Law
- Estate Planning and Litigation
- Real Estate
- Bankruptcy, Reorganization and Capital Recovery
- Intellectual Property and Technology
- Labor and Employment Law
- Family Law

Practicing the Possible™