BENJAMIN M. ALEXANDER JOINS
RUTTER HOBBS & DAVIDOFF INCORPORATED

LOS ANGELES, Calif. – July 15, 2008 – Los Angeles-based law firm Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff Incorporated announced the addition of attorney Benjamin M. Alexander. Alexander joins Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff from Richardson & Patel LLP after serving as vice president and general counsel of Nestor, Inc. and its subsidiaries.

Alexander brings over 15 years of experience to Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff's corporate and securities practice group, and will focus on corporate finance and securities law. Drawing from his experience in mergers and acquisitions and corporate governance, Alexander will also enhance the firm's client services in these areas while also utilizing his work with public micro-cap companies.

"We are very pleased to welcome Benjamin Alexander to our team," said Brian L. Davidoff, managing director, Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff Incorporated. "His experience and knowledge will greatly support the recent growth of our firm and enhance the service offerings to our expanding client base. We're looking forward to expanding our service offerings to the growing need for expertise catered to micro-cap public companies."

Alexander received his law degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School after earning his bachelor's degree from Marymount University. Prior to his role as general counsel for Nestor, Inc., where he honed his expertise in securities law, corporate governance and corporate counseling, he was partner of Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale & Dorr, resident in its Boston office. Prior to law school, Alexander worked as a systems engineer specializing in digital design and systems integration.
