Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff – Principal Sponsor for 9th Annual “Big Sunday” Event Next Week

LOS ANGELES, California – March 19, 2007 – Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff Incorporated, a Century City-based law firm, is actively involved in giving back to the community through participation and sponsorship of “Big Sunday,” an annual city-wide volunteer weekend April 28th and 29th, 2007, coordinated in partnership with the office of Mayor Antonio R. Villaraigosa.

Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff Incorporated is dedicating their time as well as providing financial support to this event. Together with NBC-Universal, Paramount Pictures, FOX Entertainment Group and Hilton Hotels, Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff Incorporated is a principal sponsor for the event. The firm will participate in two service projects, including cleaning up the Santa Monica beach with the Surfrider Foundation and helping children paint murals, gardening and assisting with social awareness activities at Charnock Elementary.

“Big Sunday is the largest citywide day of service in America,” said Leslie Blagman, Director of Development for Big Sunday. “We are expecting 35,000 to 50,000 participants who will volunteer in over 250 projects all over the Los Angeles area.”

No matter whether working with children, building houses or helping the disabled is your preference; there is a job for everyone at Big Sunday, which is dedicated to helping worthy charities throughout the Los Angeles area.

“Reaching out to the community is an integral part of our law firm,” said Brian L. Davidoff, Managing Director of Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff Incorporated. “As a group, we support several worthwhile organizations and encourage firm members to actively participate in charitable events.”
