BETH HUMMER JOINS RUTTER HOBBS & DAVIDOFF INCORPORATED AS LITIGATION ASSOCIATE

LOS ANGELES, California – May 3, 2007 – Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff Incorporated, a Century City-based law firm, recently hired Rosslyn (Beth) Hummer as a litigation associate. Her experience as a dynamic civil business litigator will bring a new level of expertise to the firm.

“Beth Hummer is an excellent addition to our team of attorneys,” said Brian L. Davidoff, Managing Director, Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff Incorporated. “Her past track record of litigation experience, serving with a highly regarded firm in a broad range of complex matters, will benefit the clients as well as the team.”

Hummer obtained her Juris Doctorate from University of Oregon School of Law in 1997, and a Bachelor of Science in Biology from Pace University in 1987. She worked as a research and development chemist and environmental regulator for the State of California before attending law school. As a lawyer, she started her career in the Los Angeles office of Sullivan & Cromwell and then joined Latham & Watkins in 2000 before coming to Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff.

“I’m delighted to work with the clients of Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff,” said Hummer. “Working with this firm gives me the opportunity to utilize my large firm level of experience in a smaller, more intimate setting.”

While law is Hummer’s passion, she is also an avid traveler. She grew up in Cairo, Egypt and participated in a biological research expedition across the South Pacific as part of Operation Raleigh. Hummer is also fluent in German.
