WENDY LANE JOINS RUTTER HOBBS & DAVIDOFF INCORPORATED

LOS ANGELES (October 23, 2007) – Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff Incorporated, a Century City-based business law firm, recently announced the addition of associate Wendy E. Lane, an experienced business litigation attorney. Lane, who joins Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff from Liner Yankelevitz Sunshine & Regenstreif, also brings extensive experience in employment law.

A graduate of the UCLA School of Law, Lane has represented clients in actions for breach of contract, fraud, unfair competition and unfair business practices, trademark infringement, civil conspiracy, breach of fiduciary duties, wrongful death/toxic torts and claims arising from the Petroleum Marketing Practices Act.

“We are very pleased to welcome Wendy to our team of attorneys,” said Brian L. Davidoff, managing director, Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff. “We are confident that her experience, commitment and litigation skills will be of great benefit to our clients and colleagues.”

“Joining Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff provides me with an incredible opportunity to be part of a team of high caliber attorneys,” said Lane. “I am excited to work with my new colleagues, many of whose work I have long admired and whose opinions and insights I’m sure I will find most valuable.”

Before attending UCLA Law School, Lane received a bachelor’s degree from University of California, Irvine in 1995. Lane has served as a director for the Los Angeles Girl Scout Council, has worked for the Children’s Rights Project of Public Counsel in Los Angeles, and is a member of both the American Bar Association and the Los Angeles County Bar Association.
