STEVEN C. PAPKIN JOINS RUTTER HOBBS & DAVIDOFF INCORPORATED

LOS ANGELES, California – June 11, 2007 – Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff Incorporated, a Century City-based business law firm, recently announced Steven C. Papkin as the newest attorney to join the firm. Papkin is a corporate lawyer with a broad range of experience in many facets of law including corporate, finance, securities, mergers and acquisitions, secured lending, and intellectual property.

“Steven Papkin is an excellent addition to our team of attorneys,” said Brian L. Davidoff, Managing Director, Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff Incorporated. “His credentials and experience enhance the scope of our firm’s corporate group.”

Papkin obtained his J.D. from Harvard School of Law in 1994 and an A.B. from Harvard University in 1989. After working at Simpson Thatcher & Bartlett in New York, Papkin moved to California in 1999 where he worked at Milbank Tweed Hadley & McCloy, prior to joining Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff. Pre-law, Papkin worked as an English teacher in Shimizu, Hokkaido, a small town in far northern Japan. He is also an active member of the California and New York Bar Associations.

“I’m delighted to join the team of attorneys at Rutter Hobbs & Davidoff in providing the highest level of full-service legal expertise,” said Papkin. “This is precisely the firm where I will be able to utilize all aspects of my knowledge base of transactional law.”

Papkin’s outside interests include long distance running. He has eleven marathons to his credit, including both the Los Angeles and Boston marathons.
